DUGOUT DIARIES

THE WEEK THAT WAS

COLUMN

Mike McCaffrey, Dugout Diaries

Tuesday night lights, a Woodside Road thriller and a Vase Saturday with seven ties full of Sussex interest

What a week to be a Sussex football fan. Tuesday night alone gave us a six-goal thriller at Woodside Road, a 4-0 at Steyning and a 7-0 at Roffey. If anyone tells you non-league is dull, hand them this supplement.

Start at the top. Worthing and Southend shared six goals on Tuesday and, honestly, the Rebels deserved more than a point. Add the 2-1 win at Kidderminster on Saturday and they are fifth, level on 28 points with Yeovil and Altrincham. Boreham Wood are out of sight on 41 and still unbeaten, but the race for the play-offs is wide open, and Worthing belong in it.

A step down, Dorking Wanderers and Hemel served up another 3-3. Dorking score for fun, 29 goals, joint-most in the division, but they concede too easily for a side with their ambitions. Horsham did what Horsham do: a 1-1 at Maidenhead, their seventh draw of the season. Hard to beat, harder to watch at times, but you can't argue with the points.

Eastbourne Borough are the form side in the Isthmian Premier: five league wins on the spin, the latest 2-1 at Maldon, and the meanest defence in the division. Burgess Hill came back from St Albans with nothing, and Whitehawk are stuck at the bottom. It's grim, and the Hawks need a result soon.

In the South East, Steyning's 4-0 over Deal ended a four-game losing run and Crowborough put three past Horley. Over in the South Central, Bognor were held 2-2 at Cobham and now sit a point behind Jersey Bulls. That title race is going to run and run.

In the SCFL, Hassocks beat Wick 3-2 to go level on 30 points with Eastbourne United, and Saturday they meet in the Vase. Roffey put seven past Ringmer and Newhaven six past Crawley Down Gatwick in the RUR Charity Cup, and I'm still trying to process Upper Beeding 1-13 Chichester City B from last weekend. Sponsors and friends get no free pass on this page either: Lingfield have the second-best attack in the division and Kwesi Ntim on 14, yet they only drew 2-2 at a Billingshurst side in 16th. A Vase run needs more killer instinct than that.

GAMES I'M LOOKING FORWARD TO

NATIONAL LEAGUE · 3PM · WOODSIDE ROAD

WORTHING V SUTTON UNITED

Fifth against twelfth, and Sussex's flag-bearers at Step 1 on home turf. Unbeaten in five, Razzaq Coleman De-Graft on seven goals. Get down there and make some noise.

FA VASE SECOND ROUND · 3PM · BEACON GROUND

HASSOCKS V EASTBOURNE UNITED

Third v second in the SCFL Premier, both on 30 points, and one of them is guaranteed a place in the Third Round. Their league meeting ended 0-0. Something tells me this one won't.

ISTHMIAN SOUTH EAST · 3PM · THE PILOT FIELD

HASTINGS UNITED V FAVERSHAM TOWN

Top hosts third. Hastings lead with games in hand; Faversham are unbeaten in six. The biggest game in the division this weekend.

SCFL DIVISION TWO · 2PM · FAIRFIELD REC

HURSTPIERPOINT V RUSTINGTON

Second v third, and both have won their last five. Grassroots football at its best, and the winner goes after Chichester City B.

DOUGIE SAYS

Top-of-the-table belter at 2pm. Second-placed Hurstpierpoint have won five straight and are perfect at home. Third-placed Rustington have won five on the bounce too, a point behind with a game in hand. Something gives today, or nothing does. Dougie goes for a share.

DOUGIE SAYS

Fourth hosts sixth. TD Shipley are unbeaten at home, six wins and a draw. Ferring have lost only once all season but have played just one league away game. TD's home form is hard to argue with. Should be tight, with a late winner for the hosts.

KEY STAT

TD Shipley: unbeaten at home (W6 D1)
