DUGOUT DIARIES

ARISE, SIR HARRY

Thank you for reading, sharing and forwarding. Now I want something back. What do you want to see in here? More match reports, club history, youth football, the women's game? Tell us what's missing and what you'd fight to keep. Email mike@inthedugout.co.uk or message us on our socials. Every reply gets read, even the ones that just say "more Dougie".

Now, the talking point of the week. Arise, Sir Harry Kane. On Thursday night at Wembley he won his 126th England cap, passing Peter Shilton's record that had stood since 1990, then put away the penalty that beat Croatia 2-1 and sent England into the Nations League last eight. That's less than three weeks after he became the first Englishman in 25 years to win the Ballon d'Or. Somebody pass the King the sword.

Shilton was there to hand him a gift before kick-off. At our level, 126 appearances for one club gets you a round of applause if you're lucky, and a reminder that subs are still due. So here's to the non-league lifers clocking up their own centuries: we see you. And Harry, if Bayern ever tire of you, plenty of SCFL clubs would find you a shirt. Expenses negotiable. Pie included. As for Sunday's game with Spain, Dougie got 18 of 39 results right last week, so no, he's not predicting that one.

Closer to home, it is FA Trophy Second Round day and six of our clubs are still in it, with Horsham v Torquay the pick of the ties. In the SCFL, Haywards Heath are five clear after winning at East Grinstead and Lancing, and Guernsey take six straight wins into their game with the Wasps. Worthing are back in National League action at Scunthorpe.

None of this happens without our partners. Pulse Water Ltd, our technology partners, are the country's leading independent water hygiene and treatment company: pulsewater.co.uk. Thanks to Joma, our global sportswear sponsor, and to Dugout 90, the most overhyped spring water in football, allegedly sourced from the fountain of youth. I can't confirm the science. I can confirm it's wet. And to the award-winning lads at Dugout AI: Best Non-League Podcast 2026, a growing app and now an 87-page Saturday Supplement.

Turn the page for part two of Russ Cochran's Remembrance feature on the Sussex footballers who went to war and never came home. Then get to a game, buy a pie, and if you see us with the camera, say hello.

REMEMBRANCE FEATURE · SUSSEX FOOTBALL HISTORY · PART TWO

SUSSEX'S LOST FOOTBALLERS

From the Goldstone to the Polegrove: the footballers who went to war and never came home, the clubs that remember them, and the history still waiting to be found.

OPINION · PART TWO

By Russ Cochran

Part one, the Sussex Football Legends Roll of Honour, ran in Dugout News Issue 14.

Dozens of footballers from across Sussex lost their lives serving during the First and Second World Wars. Their stories stretch from professional clubs such as Brighton & Hove Albion to small village and non-league sides, and include players, groundsmen, club officials and those who helped keep their clubs alive.

Many Sussex men served in the Royal Sussex Regiment, while others joined regiments and units across the British Army. Among the most famous formations was the 17th Battalion of the Middlesex Regiment, better known as the First Footballers' Battalion, which attracted professional and amateur footballers from across the country.

Football, like almost every part of everyday life, was changed by war. Players enlisted, competitions were disrupted, clubs lost members and, in far too many cases, families never saw their loved ones return.

I wanted to look beyond the familiar professional names and find out just how many footballers from our county were lost.

BRIGHTON & HOVE ALBION

Brighton & Hove Albion has a particularly well-documented connection to the First World War. Historical research by WeAreBrighton identifies nine men with Albion connections who died: eight players, including former players, and one member of the club's ground staff.

Among them were:

Bob Whiting: One of the club's finest goalkeepers, making 320 appearances between 1908 and 1915. He helped Brighton win the Southern League title and played in the 1910 Charity Shield victory over Aston Villa. He was killed by enemy shellfire at Vimy Ridge on 24 April 1917 while serving with the Army.

Clement H. 'Charlie' Matthews: A Sussex-born footballer who began his career at Horsham before joining Brighton in December 1911. He made 12 appearances for Albion and represented Sussex. Serving with the Royal Sussex Regiment, he was killed during the Battle of the Somme on 19 August 1916, aged 27.

Arthur Hulme: A full-back who captained Brighton during the 1905–06 season and made 174 appearances. He served with the Royal Sussex Regiment and was killed during the Battle of the Somme on 3 October 1916.

Jasper 'Ginger' Batey: Originally a centre-forward, Batey was converted into a left-half at Brighton. He enlisted in the Footballers' Battalion of the Middlesex Regiment before serving as a messenger with the Army Cyclist Corps. He was killed on 23 October 1915, aged 25.

Charlie Dexter: Albion's first-choice left-back during the 1914–15 season. He enlisted in April 1915 and lost his life in 1916 while serving with the Warwickshire Regiment.

Alan Haig-Brown: A former Lancing College teacher who made amateur appearances for Brighton. He rose to lieutenant-colonel, commanded the 23rd Battalion Middlesex Regiment and received the Distinguished Service Order. He died near Bapaume during the Second Battle of the Somme in 1918.

Jimmy Smith: A prolific forward who scored 40 goals in 65 appearances for Brighton before moving to Bradford Park Avenue. He continued his goalscoring exploits in Yorkshire but was killed on the Western Front in 1918, just weeks before he was due to return home for his wedding.

Tom Morris: A former Brighton centre-half who subsequently played for Leeds City. He also held coaching positions at Scunthorpe and Coventry. He lost his life at the Front.

Fred Bates: The Goldstone Ground's groundsman, who enlisted with the Royal Scots Fusiliers and became the first Albion-connected casualty of the war, killed in November 1914. The club dedicated a home fixture to his memory and raised money for his widow.

Former Albion player Tommy Allsopp also died shortly after the Armistice, having contracted influenza while returning from service in France.

It is worth distinguishing this historical list from the official Albion memorial at the Amex. That memorial names five First World War casualties and two from the Second World War. These are different records, rather than contradictory totals.

HORSHAM FC - REMEMBERING THE HORNETS' FALLEN

Horsham FC's historical work in documenting its own fallen players reveals;

Harold Agate made 145 appearances for Horsham, scoring three goals, and later became the club's co-secretary. He enlisted in September 1914 with the 16th Battalion London Regiment. By 1917 he had reached the rank of acting captain. He was killed on 14 April 1917 during the Arras fighting. His body was subsequently found and buried, although the location of his grave was lost during later fighting.

James 'Jimmy' Sturt was a Horsham-born goalkeeper who played for the club. He served with the 7th Battalion East Surrey Regiment and was killed in action on 4 October 1915. He is commemorated on the Loos Memorial.

HAILSHAM FC - A CLUB THAT HAS REMEMBERED

Hailsham FC, now Hailsham Town, has a long history, having been established in 1885.

The club installed a memorial in its clubhouse in 2016 to remember former players who lost their lives during the wars. It also acknowledges the contribution of local historian David Dyer and his book The Heroes of Hailsham.

Among the names I have identified in the wider Hailsham wartime records are:

> Ernest William Atkins, a local schoolteacher, cricketer and footballer, killed on the Somme on 3 September 1916.
> George Boniface, killed in April 1918.
>
> Frederick Charles Jennens Marillier, a local schoolmaster and DCM recipient, killed near Ypres on 30 October 1914.
> David Parsons, born in Hailsham and killed on 30 June 1916.

There are further names in the town's First World War records, but I would like to establish the individual football club connections before presenting them as confirmed Hailsham players.

The town's war memorial records 88 First World War casualties and 35 from the Second World War. Among the latter were Thomas Harold Newnham, who died in Italy in June 1944, and Herbert Pettigrew, who died in February 1944 while serving with the Royal Artillery.

The club's memorial and the work undertaken to produce it deserve recognition. It is exactly the sort of historical work I would like to see more clubs undertake.

BEXHILL ATHLETIC - AN EARLY CASUALTY

The Bexhill-on-Sea Roll of Honour provides another important connection.

Private Edward Pannifer, serving with the 2nd Battalion Royal Sussex Regiment, was a player for Bexhill Athletic Football Club.

He was killed near Ypres on 31 October 1914 and has no known grave. He is commemorated on the Menin Gate Memorial in Belgium.

The Bexhill records also identify Lieutenant-Colonel Sansom, who had served as secretary of Bexhill Football Club before being killed in July 1917.

These are precisely the sorts of connections that can disappear if nobody takes the time to look through local records as I have struggled to provide more background on someone of even such high rank.

HAYWARDS HEATH - A LOCAL FOOTBALLER LOST

The Haywards Heath Roll of Honour identifies Henry Thorley Attree, a Lance Corporal serving with the 18th Hussars.

Contemporary, and somewhat vague, local records described him as an excellent local footballer.

He was killed near Ypres in May 1915.

There may be no extensive professional playing record to consult, no collection of match photographs or newspaper headlines celebrating his goals, but he was part of the local football community. That should be enough to warrant remembering him.

MORE OF OUR LOST FOOTBALLERS

The more I looked at the backgrounds of Sussex clubs, the more I discovered about our lost local footballers, who certainly deserve to be remembered.

Research has also uncovered casualties and club histories that deserve a place in this wider account. Some are individual stories; others reveal the scale of the loss experienced by football clubs and their communities.

One particularly poignant discovery concerns Herbert Ernest Taylor, a former captain of Worthing Football Club. Taylor served as a Private with the 1/4th Battalion, Royal Sussex Regiment, and died of wounds at Gallipoli on 29 August 1915. He was born and enlisted in Worthing and is buried at Hill 10 Cemetery, Suvla Bay.

His story brings the war directly back to the town and to a football club whose history should include the people who represented it before the conflict.

There is another Worthing connection in Sidney Richard Victor Clous Mason, described in the Worthing Roll of Honour as a well-known local footballer. Mason served as a Sergeant with the 13th Battalion, Royal Sussex Regiment, and was killed during the March Retreat on 28 March 1918, aged just 24. He is commemorated on the Pozieres Memorial.

Benjamin Albert “Bert” Beney provides another remarkable connection between Sussex football and the professional game. Born in Hastings, Beney scored 142 goals in 86 appearances for Hastings & St Leonards United before going on to play for Woolwich Arsenal and Bury. He served with the Royal Engineers and died of wounds in West Flanders on 20 April 1915.

Another Sussex-born footballer was John “Jack” Spears Tosswill, born in Eastbourne. His playing career took him to Tunbridge Wells, Maidstone, Queens Park Rangers, Liverpool, Southend and Coventry City. He joined the Motor Cycle Section of the Royal Engineers, was injured and returned home, but died at the Eastern General Hospital in Brighton on 28 September 1915, aged 24.

Perhaps one of the most striking discoveries is the scale of the loss suffered by Cuckfield Town Football Club. The club's own history records that, during the First World War, it lost 16 past and present players.

That is a significant number for a local football club, and it raises an obvious question: how many of their names are still known to supporters today? The club history confirms the figure, but sadly further work is needed to identify and verify every individual.

There is a similarly sobering record from Haywards Heath Rangers. Records show that nine of the 40 players who joined up were dead by 1917. Again, this is not simply a statistic. It represents nine footballers, nine families and nine lives lost from one local club community. The individual names still need to be cross-referenced against team records and local memorials before they can be confidently listed.

These discoveries also demonstrate why this, and any further research, needs to be approached carefully. A town war memorial is not automatically a football club's roll of honour, and a person being born in a town does not prove they played for its club.

The same care is needed when looking at the names on the memorials in Cuckfield, Eastbourne, Lewes, Worthing and elsewhere. These records are invaluable starting points, but they need to be matched against club photographs, team sheets, newspaper reports, playing records and family histories. The aim is not to produce the biggest possible list. It is to produce an accurate one.

There are still clubs whose histories and players within them, deserve further investigation, including Bognor Regis Town, Newhaven, Steyning Town and Shoreham. Their histories establish that they existed during, or before, the period being examined, but sadly, again, I have not yet verified individual wartime casualties or losses for each of them.

The absence of a name in any of my research so far, should never be mistaken for proof that a club had no players serving or losing their lives.

However, what is already clear is that the impact of the First World War reached deep into Sussex grassroots football. In August 1914, clubs in the Mid Sussex Football League were already discussing shortages of players, finances and whether the season should be postponed. By 1915, local leagues had been suspended and football was being played through friendlies. The war did not just take players away; it disrupted the clubs, competitions and communities they had helped to build.

That is why these stories matter. A club's history should not begin and end with its honours, its league position or its most celebrated players. It should also remember the people who wore its colours before being called away to serve, and those who never returned.

RUSS COCHRAN

WHERE MY RESEARCH STARTED TO FALL SHORT

Having done the legwork myself and also tasked some of the most powerful AI tools and search engines available with finding more solid information, I came up short.

Not because there were no more men or names to find, but because the historical information is scattered, incomplete and, in some cases, seemingly absent from the clubs themselves.

I find that rather disappointing.

So many of our fallen were footballers. Men who were part of their local communities, who played on the same pitches we still use today, who pulled on the same club colours and shared the same dressing rooms.

Their deaths did not just leave an empty place in a team. They left families without fathers, children without parents, wives without husbands and communities without people who might otherwise have gone on to become players, coaches, organisers and volunteers.

Think about the generations of footballers who might have followed them. The fathers who would never teach their children to kick a ball, the brothers who would never play alongside them again, and the friendships that would never have the opportunity to develop.

The consequences of war reach much further than the names on a memorial.

Some clubs that still exist today appear to have done very little to bring this history into the public domain. Credit must go to those that have, but I also recognise that some clubs were established after the wars and do not have the same historical connections.

For older clubs, however, I would like to see more.

I find it remarkable that, with the technology and information available today, we can spend hours discussing the latest celebrity gossip or what somebody famous had for breakfast, yet struggle to find the stories of footballers who gave their lives.

Perhaps the information exists in an old programme, a newspaper cutting, a parish record or a family photograph. Perhaps it is sitting in somebody's loft, waiting to be discovered.

Whatever the reason, it deserves more attention.

THIS IS PERSONAL - MY OWN FAMILY'S HISTORY

I haven't approached this subject simply as somebody interested in football history. I have my own family connections to both world wars, and much like many others, the consequences of those conflicts are woven into my family's history.

My great-grandfather, Ernest Holden, was lost on the Somme just three days before the end of the First World War. He never had the opportunity to meet his daughter, my grandmother.

My grandmother's husband, Joseph, went on to serve in the Second World War and was awarded the Military Medal for bravery. There is another connection here: Joseph's own father had been lost near Amiens during the First World War.

And that is just my maternal side.

On my father's side, my grandfather was an Army Captain. I won't dwell on what the Second World War brought for him, because the experiences he endured are simply unfathomable in today's world.

When you put those family histories together, you begin to understand that the effects of war aren't confined to the dates on a history book or the names carved into a memorial.

They carry through generations.

Some families lost fathers before their children had even had the chance to know them. Others returned home carrying experiences that would stay with them for the rest of their lives.

That is why I featured the staff, organisers, chairmen and players in last week's issue. They give what they can, and they deserve recognition for that contribution. It is not the same as those who served and gave their lives, but it is another reminder of how much we can take for granted.

If you haven't already read last week's article about volunteers, it is worth revisiting alongside this one.

FAST FORWARD: OUR ERA, AND TODAY'S HISTORY

WORTHING UNITED - A MODERN CLUB, A DIFFERENT KIND OF REMEMBRANCE

On Saturday 7 November, I visited Worthing United v Arundel.

Arundel has a long footballing history, dating back to 1889, while Worthing United is a much younger club, formed in 1988 following the merger of Wigmore Athletic and Southdown FC.

But Worthing United has its own history, including a tragedy that I have never forgotten.

I deliberately didn't include two young players in last week's issue. It wasn't an oversight. I wanted to give them their own place in this article because I wanted to feel the significance of remembering them when standing pitch side at a club that suffered such a devastating loss.

Those two players were, of course, Matthew Grimstone and Jacob Schilt.

On 22 August 2015, the pair were travelling to play for Worthing United against Loxwood when they were killed in the Shoreham Airshow disaster.

Matt was 23 and was the club's goalkeeper. Jacob was also 23 and played in midfield.

They were members of the side that had enjoyed the most successful season in the club's history, winning the league and cup double.

I was travelling east to perform at a festival that day. What happened only a few minutes behind me on the A27 is something that will remain etched in my memory.

Worthing United has done much to ensure that Matt and Jacob are never forgotten. The club has a memorial stand and garden, hosts memorial fixtures and, in 2025, permanently retired their number 1 and number 11 shirts.

That is a fitting tribute.

I may never have known either of them personally, but I for one will never forget them, nor the other gents who we sadly lost that day.

REMEMBERING THOSE BEYOND THE TRADITIONAL MEMORIAL

I would also like to mention a Sussex Sunday League side, Baby Loss United.

I've been on the sidelines watching these guys play on several occasions. They receive wonderful family support, and the spirit of playing together for charity and awareness is evident.

What makes their approach particularly meaningful is that they hold a minute's silence before every fixture, remembering the young lives lost and the families affected by baby loss.

There is something very powerful about that.

Football is often described as a family game, and this is an example of how the football community can provide support, understanding and a positive way of bringing people together through difficult experiences.

The applause that follows those silences is a mark of respect, not just for those remembered but for the families who continue to live with their loss.

Remembrance doesn't have to be confined to November, nor does it have to be restricted to those who were lost when serving.

DON'T LET YOUR CLUB'S HISTORY DISAPPEAR

So, if your club has more history than is currently published, get involved.

A roll of honour isn't just a load of victories on a pitch or success over any given season.

Does your club have a historical roll of honour that sits somewhere away from the usual list of honours, trophies and league positions?

Are there names on a memorial that nobody has properly researched? Does somebody in the local community have an old photograph, a programme or a family story that could help fill in the gaps?

Ask questions. Speak to older supporters, former players, club officials and local historians. Look through the records and, where possible, check the details against military and memorial records.

You don't need to produce a book. Start by typing up what you find and putting it on the club website.

Make it accessible to the next generation.

Because once those with first-hand knowledge are gone, recovering those stories becomes considerably harder.

We spend plenty of time celebrating promotions, cup victories, goal scorers and the people who have helped build our clubs. We should do the same for the history that sits behind them.

And perhaps, in doing so, we will discover that some of the most important people in our club's history never actually got the chance to see what their clubs would become.

REMEMBER THEM. FOOTBALL OR NOT.

After a narrow defeat away to Guernsey the previous weekend had put a dent in a nice little unbeaten run that Bexhill were putting together, it was back to home action on Saturday at the Polegrove and the visit of Billingshurst.

It felt like a long time since the Pirates had travelled to Billingshurst in early August for the first game of the season, and a tough challenge on their sun-baked, dust bowl of a pitch, which saw Bexhill come away 2-1 winners. This was a chance to chalk up the first double of the campaign.

Prior to kick off, the Polegrove rang out to the haunting strains of the Last Post as two minutes' silence for remembrance weekend was impeccably observed.

Bexhill certainly started with clear intent and on five minutes Luke Donaldson met a ball in at the near post from Ash Latuske and just failed to hit the target. Minutes later Latuske himself had a shot well saved by Trigwell in the Billingshurst goal.

Quarter of an hour in and Jack Shonk burst through on the run but clipped his shot wide. It felt like Bexhill needed to capitalise on the pressure they were creating and convert one of their chances, and on 25 minutes the opening goal came.

Billingshurst were all at sea from a corner and it was Callum Brand on the spot to knock the chance into the net. Five minutes later Bexhill created a great chance to double the lead when Latuske swept down the flank and set up Connor Robertson, who fired over.

But if Bexhill thought the game was in the bag, they had another think coming, as the closing phase of the first half proved to be the best part of the game for Billingshurst. Suddenly it was the home side on the back foot and with serious work to do at the back.

No game passes these days for the Pirates without Dale Penn being called upon to put his body on the line, and on 37 minutes he threw himself across the six-yard box to clear a shot away at the death that looked for all the world like it was heading into the net.

It was a wake-up call for Bexhill as they went into the break a goal to the good. Attacking the favoured Brockley Road end in the second half, they set about the task of putting the game to bed. But, again, they would have to be patient.

There was no shortage of creativity for the Pirates. And no shortage of chances.

On 55 minutes Trigwell pulled off the save of the day, tipping a Latuske volley onto the bar. Bexhill kept coming but were frustrated by some decent defending, and it would be fair to say it was all Pirates in the second half.

On 85 minutes Theo Coombs, who had dropped deeper into midfield when Kyle Holden went off with a knock, got forward and drove a decent effort wide. A couple of minutes later Coombs got on the end of a great ball from Jack Mison and at last notched the second goal Bexhill had been chasing.

On the edge of full time Charlie Scarles slapped the icing on the cake, breaking clear through the defensive line and tucking his chance calmly past the keeper.

Three-nil was probably fair and gets Bexhill's push to be contenders in the league chasing pack back on track. Today they are at home again in the league, with a 3pm kick-off against Seaford Town.

Lewes are fifth on 30 points, seven off the top, but they lost 2-0 at leaders Enfield on Tuesday and have one win in their last three. That win was 3-2 at Dulwich Hamlet in front of 3,092 last Saturday. The Dripping Pan has been steady rather than spectacular: four wins, two draws and two defeats. They have won one of nine away. They drew 0-0 with Whitehawk last Saturday and won 3-0 against Waltham Abbey in the Essex Cup on Tuesday. This is the first league meeting of the season.

Hastings need to steady the ship

Hastings are second, a point behind Whitstable, but they have lost their last three home league games without scoring: 1-0 to Faversham, 1-0 to Deal and 3-0 to Sevenoaks on Tuesday. Before that they had won all five league games at the Pilot Field. In between they won 3-0 at Cray Valley PM, and their away record of five wins from eight is the platform for their season. Kesna Clarke and Max Walsh have eight league goals each. Steyning are 15th and have not drawn a league game all season (seven wins, ten defeats). They beat Horley 2-1 last time out and have won four of nine away, including 4-3 at Herne Bay. This is the first meeting of the season.

They won 2-1 at Ashford United in that run and drew 1-1 at Merstham in the Velocity Cup on Tuesday before going out on penalties. Samuel Hards has seven league goals and has scored in each of his side's last six league games. Margate lost 2-0 at Ashford United last time out. At home they have won three, drawn two and lost three, and they lost 5-0 at home to Merstham last month. Their best result of the season was 3-0 at Whitstable in front of 1,873 on bank holiday Monday. This is the first meeting of the season.

Sevenoaks are eighth, won 5-0 against Eastbourne Town in September and drew 2-2 with leaders Whitstable last Saturday, but they also lost 5-0 at Herne Bay on 3 November. Peacehaven are 19th and five league games without a win, losing 5-0 at Herne Bay last time out. Their only home league win came on 15 August, 4-0 against Whitstable, who now lead the division. Connor Tighe has nine league goals for Peacehaven. This is the first meeting of the season.

A West Sussex derby with something to prove

Bognor are fourth, two points behind leaders Winchester and level with Egham, but they have not won in four league games: two draws, then 1-0 at home to Egham and 2-1 at Windsor & Eton last Saturday. Nyewood Lane is still strong. Their only home league defeat was that Egham game, and they beat Hartley Wintney 7-0 there in October. Littlehampton are 21st on seven points, with one league win all season (3-0 against Cobham) and 41 goals conceded, including 8-1 at home to Hartley Wintney and 6-0 at Egham. Harry Heath has six league goals. Bognor won the first meeting 1-0 at Littlehampton in August in front of 828.

DOUGIE'S PREVIEWS

By Dougie · Dugout AI

Dougie on all nine games involving SCFL Premier clubs today, league and cup. Form: last five league games, latest on the right. Dougie's call is a prediction, not a promise.

SCFL PREMIER 13:30

GUERNSEY — 6th · 29 pts · P14 — W W W W W

EAST GRINSTEAD TOWN — 4th · 30 pts · P16 — D W W W L

Six in a row meets the side that never gets beaten heavily

Guernsey take a six-game league winning run into this, the latest a 4-0 win over Lancing last Saturday, and they are strong at Footes Lane: five wins from seven, 19 scored and eight conceded. They are sixth on 29 points but have two games in hand on fourth-placed East Grinstead, who are one point better off. The Wasps are hard to beat on the road (four wins, two draws and one defeat away, with four clean sheets) and none of their four league defeats has been by more than a goal, the latest 3-2 at home to the leaders last week. Kieron Pamment has 11 league goals for the visitors, William Fazakerley eight for Guernsey. The one meeting so far went Guernsey's way, 1-0 at the East Court in August.

BEXHILL UNITED — 8th · 26 pts · P15 — W W D L W

SEAFORD TOWN — 12th · 19 pts · P16 — D W L W L

Bexhill have Seaford's number

Bexhill have beaten Seaford twice already this season, both times at Seaford: 2-0 in the league on 4 August and 3-2 in the Peter Bentley Cup later that month. They come into this on the back of a 3-0 win over Billingshurst (our match report on page 13 has the full story) and sit eighth on 26 points, with three wins, two draws and two defeats at the Polegrove. Seaford are 12th on 19 points and have been up and down all autumn: they beat Pagham 3-2 last Saturday, then lost 2-1 at home to Billingshurst on Tuesday. Away from home they have won three, drawn one and lost five, conceding 19 goals in those nine games. Bexhill's biggest league win of the season came on the road, 5-1 at Crawley Down Gatwick.

EASTBOURNE UNITED — 2nd · 36 pts · P17 — D W L W W

The division's best attack v the worst travellers

Eastbourne United have scored 60 league goals in 17 games, the most in the division and more than three a game. Callum Barlow has 12, Charlie Ball ten and James Hull eight, and the last two league outings brought 5-0 at Horsham YM and 5-2 at Wick. The curious thing is that United have not kept a home league clean sheet all season, conceding 13 in seven games at The Oval. That may not matter against Little Common, who are bottom on ten points and have lost all eight of their away league games, scoring seven and conceding 30. Common did beat Forest Row 6-1 a fortnight ago but lost 1-0 at home to Roffey last week. United won the August meeting 4-1 at Little Common.

Five clear, five in a row

Haywards Heath Town have won five league games in a row, including 3-2 at East Grinstead last Saturday and 3-1 at Lancing on Tuesday. They are five points clear of Eastbourne United with a game in hand, have conceded 12 league goals all season (the fewest in the division) and are unbeaten at home: five wins and a draw, two goals conceded and four clean sheets. Their only league defeat was 2-1 at Crawley Down Gatwick in October. AFC Varndeanians are tenth on 24 points. They are tight at the back, with seven clean sheets, but have scored only 19 in 17. They lost 2-1 at Pagham on Tuesday after a 3-0 win over Horsham YM last Saturday. Heath won 2-1 at Varndeanians in August.

Two Tuesday winners at the wrong end

Both sides won away on Tuesday. Horsham YM won 3-1 at Midhurst, only their second league win of the season, and Billingshurst won 2-1 at Seaford. YM are 19th on ten points from 15 games and have scored 14 league goals, the fewest in the division; at home they have won one, drawn two and lost four. Billingshurst are 14th on 15 points but have played 18 games, more than anyone else, and have conceded 43, the joint-most in the division. Away from home they have won two and lost six. Before Tuesday they had lost 3-0 at Bexhill, and YM had lost 3-0 at Varndeanians and 5-0 at home to Eastbourne United. The August meeting at Billingshurst finished 1-1.

Pagham need to sort out the away days

Pagham beat Lancing 5-0 at home in August, their biggest league win of the season, and Lewis Rustell has ten league goals. They are 11th on 23 points with games in hand on everyone around them, and they beat Varndeanians 2-1 on Tuesday. The worry is the road: one win and five defeats in six away league games. Lancing are 16th on 14 points and have lost their last two, 4-0 at Guernsey and 3-1 at home to the leaders on Tuesday. They have not kept a home league clean sheet all season, winning two, drawing one and losing five at Culver Road. Their last league win was 3-1 against Hassocks on 17 October, and it is still one of only two league defeats Hassocks have suffered.

DOUGIE'S PREVIEWS

SAT 14 NOV

By Dougie · Dugout AI

Dougie on all ten games involving SCFL Division One clubs today, league and cup. Form: last five league games, latest on the right. Dougie's call is a prediction, not a promise.

SCFL DIVISION ONE — 15:00

DIAL SQUARE — 8th · 26 pts · P15 — W L L W W

Seven home wins from nine

Dial Square have won seven of their nine home league games and conceded three goals at home all season, with six clean sheets; their biggest win was 6-0 against Ringmer. They beat Shoreham 3-1 last Saturday and won 1-0 at Reigate Priory in the Division One Cup on Tuesday. Arundel are 15th on 16 points and are nine league games without a win, a run that includes a 7-0 home defeat to Reigate Priory. Their last league win was 4-1 at East Preston on 5 September. They have not kept a league clean sheet all season and have won one of seven away. They lost 2-1 at Worthing United last week. But Arundel did beat Dial Square 2-1 in August.

DOUGIE'S CALL 2-0

SCFL DIVISION ONE — 15:00

EAST PRESTON — 14th · 19 pts · P15 — D L L W D

Ringmer still looking for the way out

Ringmer have lost their last six league games and have conceded 44 in 17. They have failed to score in eight of those games, and both of their league wins have come away from home, including 2-0 at Dorking Wanderers B in September. They are 19th on nine points. They lost 2-1 at home to Oakwood last Saturday and 3-2 to Jarvis Brook the Tuesday before. East Preston are 14th on 19 points and have been hard to read: a 1-0 win over Reigate Priory a fortnight ago, then a 2-2 draw at Clanfield last week. At home they have won three, drawn two and lost two. They won 1-0 at Ringmer in August.

DOUGIE'S CALL 2-0

SCFL DIVISION ONE — 15:00

GUILDFORD CITY — 7th · 26 pts · P16 — W L W W L

Dorking B arrive with a cup scalp

Dorking Wanderers B are 18th on nine points, but on Tuesday they knocked the leaders Infinity out of the Division One Cup 2-1. They also drew 2-2 with Saltdean in the league last Saturday. They have not kept a league clean sheet all season and have conceded 41 in 17. Guildford won the league meeting 7-0 at Dorking in August, their biggest win of the season. City are seventh on 26 points, have won four, drawn two and lost two at home, and Luke Mitchell has nine league goals. They lost 4-1 at Selsey last Saturday but bounced back with a 3-1 win at Saltdean in the Division One Cup on Tuesday.

DOUGIE'S CALL 3-1

SCFL DIVISION ONE — 15:00

HAILSHAM TOWN — 9th · 25 pts · P16 — L W W W L

MILE OAK — 10th · 24 pts · P16 — D W W L W

Ninth v tenth, one point apart

One point separates ninth and tenth. Hailsham have scored in every home league game this season, winning five, drawing one and losing two, and Tyler Pearson has 12 league goals. They lost 3-1 at Reigate Priory last Saturday, then went through on penalties at Jarvis Brook in the Division One Cup on Tuesday after a 1-1 draw. Mile Oak have won two of their last three, including 2-1 against Loxwood last week. Their away form is the issue: two wins, two draws and five defeats, and they have failed to score in four of those games. Mile Oak won the league meeting 3-2 in August, but Hailsham won 4-0 at Mile Oak in the Sussex Senior Cup.

WORTHING UNITED

A game in hand v the in-form side

Worthing United are fourth and unbeaten in five league games, with 41 league goals and only 13 conceded. Liam Appleton and Daniel Kingston have eight league goals each, and they beat Ringmer 8-0 in August. The cups have been rough: they lost 7-0 at home to Haywards Heath Town in the Peter Bentley Cup and went out of the Division One Cup at Westfield on Tuesday. Saltdean are four points behind with a game in hand and have scored 21 in five home league games, winning four. They beat Selsey 6-1 a fortnight ago. Their 2-0 win at Worthing United on 4 October is still United's only league defeat by more than a goal.

360° TOURS FOR FOOTBALL CLUBS

What a 360° tour can do for a football ground

Built on Matterport. Here's what I can add to a club's tour, beyond the walk-round itself.

A 360° tour lets anyone walk round the ground online: the clubhouse, the bar, the dugouts and the pitch. The extras below make it easy to find your way round, and point people to the club's hire, tickets, shop and sponsors.

01 Helping people find their way

No one has to click through the whole tour to find what they want.

Labels on every area

Bar, function room, dugouts, changing rooms. Each area is named, so people always know where they are.

Search

A search button finds any named area or tagged item and takes people straight to it.

Jump to any highlight

Tap any picture in the highlight reel to go straight there. It can also play as a guided tour, and loop on a TV in the clubhouse.

Links that open in the right place

A link can open the tour at one exact spot. "Hire the clubhouse" on the club's website opens in the function room; "Matchdays" opens pitch-side.

Choose where it opens

The tour can start wherever makes the best first impression, such as the view from the main stand.

Minimap and compass

A small map shows where you are in the ground, and a compass shows which way is north. Handy on a big site.

02 Links to the club's own pages

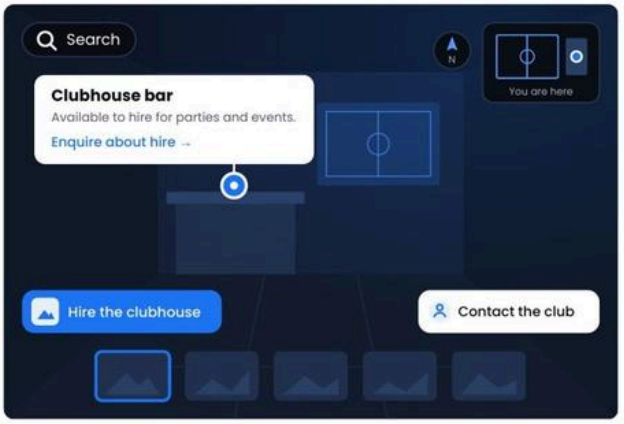

Set up once, for the whole tour.

ALWAYS ON SCREEN

One button, in every view

An image and link sit in the corner of the whole tour, so nobody has to hunt for the booking page, and it doesn't need adding to every view.

Hire the clubhouse | Buy tickets | Club shop

An illustration of where these sit on screen. The exact look is Matterport's.

Tags: pins on anything

A tag sits on a real spot in the tour: the bar, a sponsor board, the trophy cabinet. Each one can hold text, a link, photos or a video.

A contact card too

An expandable card in the other corner gives the club's contact details, so visitors can get in touch without leaving the tour.

03 Ideas for a football ground

What the tags and links could point to.

Hire
The function room and bar tagged with their capacity and an "Enquire about hire" link.

Matchday
The turnstiles link to the tickets page, the tea bar to its menu, and the club shop to the online shop.

Sponsors
A tag on each pitch-side board, linking to that sponsor's website. Something the club could add to its sponsorship packages.

Getting there
A tag at the entrance with the address, parking and step-free access, so visitors know what to expect before they arrive.

History
The trophy cabinet or honours board, with the club's story, old photos or a video clip.

Getting involved
Links to membership and volunteering, right where people can see what they'd be joining.

04 More from the same visit

360° views	Single 360° photos for spots outside the main scan, like the far terrace.
One joined-up tour	Separate scans, such as the clubhouse one day and the ground another, joined into one tour.
Measurements	Visitors can measure rooms themselves, which helps anyone planning an event.
Photos for the club	Still photos taken from the scan, for the club's website and social media.
Visitor numbers	How many people have viewed the tour.
Tidy and private	Stray bits outside the ground trimmed off. Faces and number plates can be blurred.
Floor plans	Priced on request.

ALREADY DONE AT A BIGGER CLUB

Aberdeen FC

Aberdeen's Matterport tour of Pittodrie showed the club shop, matchday hospitality and the pitch from an executive box. It won "best digital twin of 2021".

Source: afc.co.uk, 13 December 2021

05 What I'd need from the club

So everything's ready on the day of the scan.

- The links: hire or booking page, tickets, shop, membership and volunteering.
- Sponsor names and websites, once the sponsors are happy to be included.
- The facts for each tag, such as room capacities and opening times.
- Anything to keep out, like private offices. Any photos showing children are taken down before the scan.

NEXT STEP A free 20-minute call to talk through the ground and what the club wants from its tour. Fixed price, agreed up front.

- Some features depend on the Matterport plan. I confirm exactly which ones a club's tour will have before the scan.
- Sponsor tags only go in with the club's OK.
- I never show children in a tour, its tags or its photos.
